

EMORY
UNIVERSITY

Center for Faculty
Development and Excellence

EMORY CENTER FOR ETHICS

LIVING the Plant-Strong LIFE

RIP ESSELSTYN

Author of the national bestselling books

The Engine 2 Diet

&

Plant-Strong

Tuesday, March 14
3:00-5:00 pm

Candler School of Theology (RARB),
Room 252

Rip Esselstyn is a former firefighter and world premier triathlete. He introduced his passion for a whole-foods, plant-based diet to Austin's Engine 2 Firehouse, and then more broadly through his bestselling books. Currently Rip is a Healthy Eating Partner with Whole Foods Market, promoting the connection between a plant-based diet and good health.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. ALL ARE WELCOME.

This event is hosted by the CFDE as part of the university course "Eating Ethics."