

Frankenstein

RELIGIOUS & CULTURAL PERSPECTIVES

A four-part speaker series investigating the religious and cultural implications of the 200 year old text, Frankenstein by Mary Shelley.

JANUARY 30, 2018 | 7P

When Women Dream of Monsters: Mary Shelley & the Walking Dead

Dr. Kimberly Wallace-Sanders

Associate Professor of American & African American Studies Center for Ethics Commons, 102

FEBRUARY 28, 2018 | 7P

Dr. Steven Kraftchick

Professor in the Practice of New Testament Interpretation
Center for Ethics Commons, 102

MARCH 20, 2018 | 7P

Dr. Paul Root Wolpe

Director of the Center for Ethics, Asa Griggs Candler Professor of Bioethics
Center for Ethics Commons, 102

APRIL 18, 2018 | 7P

Dr. Lester Friedman

Emeritus Professor of Media & Society, Hobart & Smith College
Center for Ethics Commons, 102

