

the State of Race speaker series presents

SOLEDAD O'BRIEN

at Emory University

Soledad O'Brien, the award-winning CNN anchor of Black In America, Latino In America, Muslim In America and Gary and Tony Have a Baby will discuss contemporary race-relations in America at this year's State of Race Speaker at Emory University, January 25th, 2011 at 8 p.m. as part of the annual State of Race speaker series.

---

Tickets are free and available through the Emory Center for Ethics. For more information, contact the Center for Ethics at 404.727.4954

Sponsored by the Emory Student College Council, the Emory Center for Ethics, and the Emory Office of Multicultural Programs and Services

EMORY UNIVERSITY