Organization’s Mission Statement:
Founded in 1913, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) is a civil rights and human relations organization dedicated to combating anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry and to building positive inter-group relations.

Summary of organization’s primary programs and services:
Through a network of 28 regional offices, ADL combats bigotry and hate, advocates for state and federal legislation, develops educational programs and serves as a resource to promote harmonious relations between diverse ethnic and religious groups. The Southeast Regional Office, located in Atlanta, covers Georgia, Alabama, South Carolina and Tennessee.

ADL develops materials, programs and services that build bridges of communication, understanding and respect among diverse racial, religious and ethnic groups. ADL fights to maintain church-state separation and to keep our public schools free of coercive religious practices. In addition, we protect freedom of speech and of religious expression, and the right to live without fear of bias-motivated hate crimes.
