

50,000 dead, 1.5 million displaced . . . What can we do?

Genocide in the Sudan

October 13 - November 14, 2004

First Three Events:

Wednesday, October 13, 2004

8:00 p.m., White Hall 206

"The American Response to the Armenian Genocide"

Dr. Peter Balakian

Donald M. and Constance H. Rebar Chair in Humanities, Colgate University

reception and book-signing to follow

sponsored by Hightower Lecture Fund, Institute for Jewish Studies, English, History, Comparative Literature, Program in Culture, History & Theory (ILA), Russian & East European Studies, Center for the Study of Public Scholarship

Saturday, October 16, 2004

5:00 p.m., White Hall 208

"Darfur Crisis: The World Responds"

Dr. Abdullahi An-Na'im

Candler Professor of Law, Emory Law School

breaking of fast and dinner to follow, Cannon Chapel

sponsored by Muslim Students' Association

Wednesday, October 27, 2004

7:00 p.m., WHSCAB Auditorium

"Crisis in the Sudan: a panel discussion"

Jerry Fowler

*Director, Committee on Conscience, U.S. Holocaust
Memorial Museum*

Deborah Scroggins

*Former Foreign Affairs Reporter for
The Atlanta Journal-
Constitution and author of Emma's War*

Basia Tomczyk

Epidemiologist, International Emergency & Refugee Health Branch, CDC

sponsored by GSAS, ICIS, Emory College, Institute of African Studies, The Claus M. Halle Institute for Global Learning

Hillel will sponsor letter-writing and/or petition-signing opportunities at all scheduled events.

For an updated, full schedule of events visit www.emory.edu/sudan

Support for this project is provided by the Office of International Affairs, The Claus M. Halle Institute for Global Learning, the Institute for Comparative & International Studies, the Graduate School of Arts & Sciences, Emory College, the Institute for Jewish Studies, the Ethics Center, the Institute of African Studies, Campus Life, the Office of Multi-Cultural Programs & Services, the Muslim Students' Association, Amnesty International Emory, Emory Hillel, Religious Life, the African Students Association and the Hightower Lecture Fund

For more information about this series please contact: Mary Jo Duncanson, Office Manager,
Institute for Jewish Studies. 404-727-2536 | mary.jo.duncanson@emory.edu