Organization’s Mission Statement:
PADV’s mission is to end the crime of intimate partner violence and empower its survivors, and our vision is a community free of domestic violence. To that end, our goals are to educate the public on the dynamics of intimate partner violence; promote healthy dating relationships among adolescents and teens to prevent future violence; offer safety and shelter for battered women and their children; restore power, self-sufficiency and control to survivors; and create an effective and coordinated community response to intimate partner violence.
Summary of organization’s primary programs and services:

PADV’s roster of direct services includes a 24-hour crisis line; two 24-hour emergency shelters in metro Atlanta with 96 beds; legal advocacy; supportive housing; a teen dating violence prevention program; outreach and prevention programs for battered women and children; a workplace violence annual conference that equips companies to respond when domestic violence enters the workplace; and community education and training efforts. Annually we serve over 18,000 women and children. PADV was established in 1975 and is currently celebrating fortieth (40) years of service to the community. We are the largest domestic violence agency in the state of Georgia.

Intern’s title: Development Intern

Number of interns requested by this organization? 1

Internship project/job description:

This placement will provide hands-on experience in day-to-day marketing and development for the largest domestic violence agency in the state of Georgia. The intern will work hand in hand with the both the VP of Development & Marketing and the CEO to go on in person donor meetings, attend marketing committee meetings and serve as an active participant and be given specific responsibilities for PADV’s social media and website upgrade. As part of this project, PADV will ask the intern to do an evaluation of the organizations current use of social media and the web and how it either speaks or does not speak to potential donors and the women and children we serve. In addition to evaluating our current status, the intern will be given the opportunity to create a yearlong plan that supports any recommended changes. There will be additional duties TBD.
