

EMORY
CENTER FOR ETHICS

ADVANCING HUMANITY WITH ETHICAL AI

Speaking Engagements, Lectures, and Conferences

Ethical Management of AI: Current Perspectives on AI Risk Management Frameworks in the US and EU, France-Atlanta Annual Conference 2021

Ethical Management of AI: A French-American dialogue on AI and Privacy, Trust, and Human Oversight in Health and Well Being, France-Atlanta Conference, 2020

AI and Deep Ethics, TEDx Atlanta

The Social and Ethics Impact of Emerging Technologies, Marcus Foundation Board Retreat, Boca Raton, FL

Ethics in AI, Technology Association of Georgia, Atlanta.

AI: Pushing Our Ethical Boundaries, Decatur Book Festival

Ethics Implications of Artificial Intelligence, Buckhead club, Emory Alumni Association

AI: The Possibilities and Ethical Questions in Healthcare, Health Connect South, Atlanta

Ethical Implications of Brain Behavior Quantification, NIH Bethesda, MD

AI Ethics in Healthcare, Emory Presidential Dinner Series

Ethics in Artificial Intelligence: The Need for ‘Deep Ethics’, Rotary Club of Atlanta

Bracing for the Oncoming Wave of Artificial Intelligence: It’s Likely Impact on Jobs, Work, and Human Flourishing, Commerce Club, Atlanta

Ethics and Artificial Intelligence, Georgia Chamber of Commerce Board of Governors Retreat, Barnsley Resort, GA

Ethical Challenges in Digital Phenotyping: Predicting Brain Health with Phones, Social Media, and Beyond, Georgia Psychiatric Physicians Association, Atlanta

The Business Ethics of Artificial Intelligence, Connex 2019 Professional and Business Seminar, Atlanta

Overview & the Science behind AI and the Ethical Implications of AI-enabled technology, TI:GER Innovation Conference, Atlanta

AI and Ethical Algorithms: The Need for 'Deep Ethics', Atlanta Kiwanis Club

Ethical Artificial Intelligence, International Council on Systems Engineering, Atlanta

Ethics of Artificial Intelligence, Henry D. Schlinger Ethics Symposium, Dallas, TX

AI in Medical Education, American Association of Medical Colleges (AAMC) conference in Phoenix, AZ

Grants

AI Ethics in Radiology grant (Advanced Radiology Services Foundation Grant and Emory Radiology) received $100k for a collaborative project with Michigan State University that includes journal articles and podcast series: AI, Radiology and Ethics

Woodruff Health Sciences Center support for 1.5 day conference, Faculty from Emory, GSU, Georgia Tech and UGA presented and discussed AI issues affecting health care delivery

Academic Learning Community grant from Emory - Recruited 24 Emory faculty and staff to discuss AI issues affecting the university environment to develop white paper on faculty interests and concerns.

Marcus Foundation grant of $50K to develop Ethics of AI online course certificate program

General Publications

Rethinking Ethical Categories in the Age of Technology (Hastings Center Report)

On Precedent Autonomy (Journal of Hospital Ethics)

Special Issue of the American Journal of Bioethics Neuroscience on the intersection of AI, ethics, and neuroscience.

Welcoming the Intel-ethicist (Hastings Center Report)

Other Activities

Organized Atlanta Coalition for AI, including GA Tech, GA State, and other academic and business institutions

First World Congress on AI Governance, Prague, April 2020

Partnership Conversations

Microsoft AI

Google and Google X on AI and ethics

Meeting with Jae Kim and Suresh Sharma, creators of 30-acre Innovation Community in Atlanta

Global Futures Council World Economic Forum, Dubai

Emory Data Science Center and AI in Healthcare Multiple conversations and strategy sessions