

ETHICS AND EQUITY DIALOGUE:
WHAT IS COMMUNITY? WITH AND FOR WHOM DO WE STRUGGLE FOR JUSTICE?

On GLOBAL ETHICS DAY 2022, we encourage your engagement no matter where on earth you live.

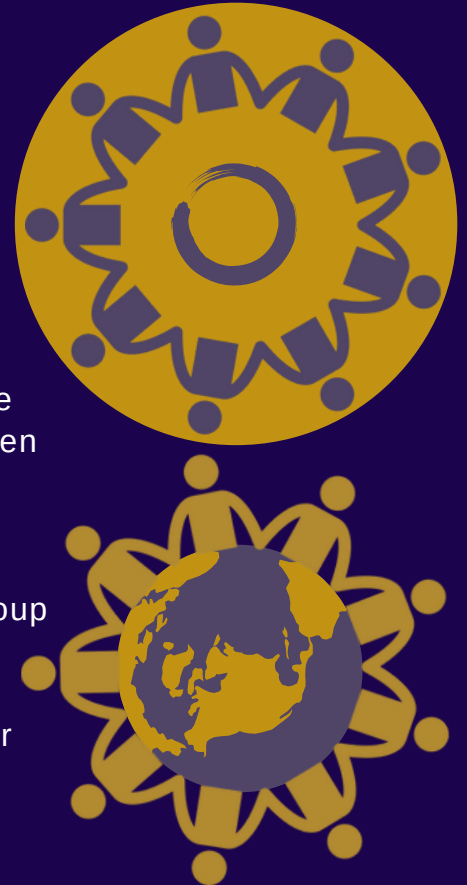

Partnering with Out of Hand Theater, the Ethics and Equity Dialogue, in memory of Dr. James Fowler, leads us to explore how we understand community as well as the tensions between different parts of our identity.

The event will feature an original, short play by playwright Amina McIntyre, a panel discussion, and facilitated, small-group conversation, over dinner.

This will be a “hybrid” event. We plan to welcome some of our participants in person on the Emory campus for the evening (limited seating), and others will join us virtually. For those joining remotely, we hope you will consider hosting your own dialogue group, perhaps around dinner.

For more detailed information, and to register for the event:

- For the in-person event ($30) visit: Fowler22.eventbrite.com.
- For virtual attendance or to host your own dialogue/dinner (no charge) visit: Fowler22virtual.eventbrite.com

WHEN?

WED. OCT 19, 2022
6:15-8:30 PM ET

WHERE?

IN-PERSON EVENT:
EMORY CENTER FOR ETHICS
RM. 102
1531 DICKEY DRIVE
ATLANTA, GA 30322

COST?

LIVE EVENT @ CFE:
$30 PER PERSON
(Includes Dinner)

NEED MORE INFORMATION?

ALISON KEAR
EVENTS MANAGER,
AKEAR@EMORY.EDU
404.727.1476

VIRTUAL EVENT:
WHEREVER YOU
HANG YOUR HAT

NO CHARGE