Organization's Mission Statement: To create, produce and distribute high quality programs and services that educate, inform and entertain our audiences and enrich the quality of their lives.

Summary of organization's primary programs and services:

With nine television stations, 20 radio stations and multi-faceted digital and education divisions, Georgia Public Broadcasting (GPB) is the state's public media leader and one of the largest public media networks in the nation. GPB's mission is to educate, entertain and enrich the lives of audiences by providing access to PBS and NPR and producing original content that includes statewide news coverage, current affairs, high school sports, digital education for PreK-12, and documentaries and TV series showcasing Georgia's culture, history, environment, politics and economy.

GPB takes our commitment to life-long learning very seriously, and we realize this through a variety of events and experiences throughout the year. Whether it's through documentary film screenings and inspiring civic dialogue, fun and educational family events, or thrilling MASTERPIECE premieres, GPB is pleased to connect with individuals virtually and in person to inspire, entertain, and provide space where Georgians can learn from and engage with each other around a variety of programming topics.
